Introduction

AUTHORITY AND SCOPE—The Economic Censuses are required by law under 13 U.S.C., sections 131, 191, and 224. The 1967 Census of Business portion of the Economic Censuses consists of firms engaged in retail trade, wholesale trade, and selected services (hotels and motels; personal, business, and repair services; and amusement and recreation services including the motion picture industry) which operated in the United States. In addition, the Census of Business covered public warehouses, dental laboratories, law firms, architectural and engineering firms, travel agencies and truck and bus carriers not subject to economic regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Data for the contract construction industry also were collected in this Census but published in a separate series of reports. The Census of Business also covered Guam and the Virgin Islands. A separate 1967 Census of Business, Manufacturers, and Construction for Puerto Rico was conducted jointly with the Commonwealth Government.

KINDS OF BUSINESS COVERED—Retail trade as defined in the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual¹ includes all establishments primarily engaged in selling merchandise to personal, household, and farm users. In this report, liquor stores operated by State and local governments have also been included in Retail Trade statistics. The basic retail trade tabulations do not include data for post exchanges, ship stores, and similar establishments operated on military posts by agencies of the Federal Government. A separate presentation of the data for such establishments appears in table 7 of the area reports. Neither do the basic tabulations include data for administrative offices, captive warehouses, and other units which service or are auxiliary to retail establishments within the same organization. See the Kind-of-Business Classifications section of appendix A for definitions of the kind-of-business categories for which data are shown in this report.

CENSUS DISCLOSURE RULES—In accordance with Federal law governing census reports, any data which would disclose the operations of an individual establishment or business organization are not published. However, the number of establishments in a kind of business is not considered a disclosure, so that this item may appear in instances where other items of information for the same kind of business or locality are withheld.

CORRECTIONS TO DATA—Data in this report comprise the statistical portions of previously published reports (Series BC-RA). Changes found after the final publications were issued have not been carried to specific areas in this report unless they significantly affect the data for such areas. As a result the detail in some tables may not add to totals.

TABLE 18. Department Stores, by Kind of Business of Leased Department-United States: 1967

(These data include only leased departments (concessions) operated in department stores during the year 1967. Retail businesses reporting in the census were asked "Is your business at this location conducted as a department or concession (such as a millinery department in a department store) in an establishment operated by another firm?" They were further instructed to answer "Yes" to this question "if customers normally consider your operation as part of the establishment operated by the other firm, or if your sales are billed by that establishment." In addition every establishment was asked to list any operations within the establishment which met these criteria. Leased departments are included in these tabulations whether identified by the department store or by the leased department operators)

GENERAL EXPLANATION

CENSUS COVERAGE

Method of Coverage—Effective with the 1967 Census of Business, a major shift in the method of compiling data was introduced. In the 1954, 1958, and 1963 Censuses data for all "employer" establishments (those which had some paid employment during the census year) were obtained through a mail canvass. Information for "nonemployers" was obtained from Federal income tax records.

In the 1967 Census of Business, retail firms were divided into two categories—the "mail universe" and the "nonmail" universe. The coverage of each component and the method of obtaining census information for these two groups are described below.

1. The "nonmail" universe—This group consists of firms which were not required to file a regular census return and includes the following categories:

a. All "nonemployers"—Consists of all firms with no paid employment during 1967. Sales information for these firms was obtained from 1967 Federal income tax records. Although made up of a large number of firms, the nonemployer segment accounts for only about 5 percent of total retail sales. (See "Comparison of the 1963 Census With the 1967 Census," item 4, below.)

In the 1967 Census, data for all nonemployer establishments were compiled from tax records. In the 1963 Census, data were compiled from only one-half of the nonemployer tax returns and were multiplied by 2 to establish census totals.

The census included only those retail nonemployer firms which reported a sales volume of $2,500 or more during 1967 or, having been in operation for less than the full year, reported sales which would have reached a total of $2,500 or more on an annual basis. This treatment is the same as in the 1963 Census.

b. Selected "small employers"—"Employers" consist of all business firms in the active records of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) which were subject to payment of Federal Insurance Contribution Act (FICA) taxes. "Small employers" consist basically of all those single unit firms with payroll below a specified cutoff (except for a 10-percent sample of these which were included in the "mail" universe). The cutoff varied by kind of business and was designed, in most cases, to limit the "nonmail" group to establishments which would account for approximately 20 percent of total sales in each kind of business. The "number-of-employee" equivalent of the payroll cutoff generally was in the range of one to three employees.

Data on sales, payroll, and employment for "under cutoff" employer firms were obtained from the administrative records of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA).

2. The "mail" universe—Information for firms in this group was obtained basically by means of a mail canvass. However, information on first quarter payroll and mid-March employment for single-unit employers (section b below) was obtained from IRS and SSA records. The "mail" universe includes the following categories:

a. Firms in the census prec canvass—The census prec canvass operation was basically designed to identify firms which operated units at more than one location.

Firms which were included in the prec canvass were drawn primarily from 1963 Census records of multiunit firms and large employers. Miscellaneous categories of organizations (e.g., cooperative associations; State, county, and municipal liquor stores; and retail stores of utility companies) were also included in the prec canvass.

b. Firms not in the census prec canvass—Other firms included in the "mail" universe consist of the following categories:

- (1) The 10 percent of "small employer" firms referred to in section 1-b above.
- (2) Other employers than those covered by section 1-b or 2-a above.

Comparison of the 1963 Census with the 1967 Census—Except for the method of coverage described above, the 1963 and 1967 censuses were conducted under similar conditions and procedures. Strict comparability of the data for the two censuses is limited by the following factors:

1. Classification—For both 1963 and 1967, nonemployer firms were classified on the basis of information supplied on the Federal income tax returns. However, the 1967 classifications for "nonemployer" firms were coded in less detail than in 1963. Therefore, 1967 data for the combination of "employer" and "nonemployer" establishments are presented in less kind-of-business detail than was the case in 1963. Data for employer establishments, however, are shown in full detail.

For 1963, nonemployer firms were classified by IRS personnel with technical assistance of Census Bureau personnel. For 1967, classification of these firms was performed by personnel of the IRS through use of a coded listing of the kinds of business which were to be separately identified. While the technique of classification was substantially the same and was based on the firm's description of its principal business activity, greater use was made in 1967 of "basket" classifications (e.g., miscellaneous food stores).

The 1967 Census classification for the small employer firms (see coverage of employers above) which were not mailed the Census report form was based on the following:

- a. If the firm had been in business in 1963, the kind-of-business classification which had been assigned in that census was used.
- b. If the firm was a "birth" since 1963, the SSA classification was used if it corresponded to a census classification.
- c. If an adequate kind-of-business classification could not be assigned under the procedure outlined in a. and b. above, the firm was mailed a brief inquiry requesting information needed to assign such a classification.
- d. If these three procedures proved inadequate, the firm's description of its principal business activity as entered on its IRS business tax return was used.

The 1967 Census classification for establishments in the mail universe (section 2 above) was assigned on the basis of answers to questions on sales by merchandise lines and other special inquiries.

In addition to differences in classification based on the method of enumeration, some changes were made in the 1967 Census in the individual kind-of-business classifications which are detailed in the "Kind-of-Business Classifications" section below. The kinds of business involving significant changes are building materials dealers, optical goods stores, and refreshment places. These changes importantly limit the comparability of the 1967 Census data for these kinds of business with those for the previous census.

2. Areas—The physical area of a number of urban places for which data are shown in the 1967 Census is not the same as it was in the 1963 Census because of annexations and other boundary changes which occurred since 1963.

3. Active proprietors—In the 1963 Census, the number of active proprietors of unincorporated businesses was computed by crediting sole proprietorships with one proprietor and partnerships with two proprietors for each establishment in business during the week of November 15. In this report, the count of active proprietors is based on crediting each sole proprietorship with one active proprietor and each partnership with two active proprietors for the following types of firms, including multiunits firms:

- a. All "employer" firms which had a first quarter 1967 payroll.
- b. All "nonemployer" firms in business the full year.
- c. Every second "nonemployer" firm not in business the full year.

4. Coverage of nonemployers—Although a comparison of data for nonemployer firms from the 1963 and 1967 Censuses seems to indicate that there was an increase in the number of such firms and that they accounted for approximately as large a proportion of total retail sales volume in 1967 as in 1963, these conclusions are subject to the following limitations:

The combination of (1) the census processing cutoff occurring before the completion of the flow of tax forms from which the census nonemployer data were derived and (2) other processing omissions is estimated to have led to a loss of about 50,000 nonemployer firms, accounting for about one-half of 1 percent of retail sales volume in 1963. This estimate, which is based on a study of a sample of tax forms made after the 1963 Census results were compiled, reflects a more substantial census omission than previously had been estimated. Because of a later processing date for the 1967 Census, omissions from this census are believed negligible. Both censuses probably omitted a small number of nonemployers (accounting for a negligible sales volume) because the tax form kind-of-business description was inadequate to indicate they conducted an in-scope kind of business.

As noted in section 1-a under "Method of Coverage" above, only those retail nonemployer establishments were included in the census which reported a sales volume of $2,500 or more during 1967 or, having been in operation for less than the full year, reported sales which would have reached a total of $2,500 or more on an annual basis. While these are the same rules used in the 1963 Census, a modification to reflect price changes probably would have resulted in the exclusion of several thousand additional marginal firms.

5. Payroll—In 1963 the inclusion in payroll of gratuities received by employees from patrons was not requested. In 1967, both in the case of payroll reported to the Internal Revenue Service and payrolls reported to the Census Bureau, businesses were requested to include in payroll the amount of tips and gratuities which were reported to employers as received by employees from patrons.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS

Establishments—An establishment is a single physical location at which business is conducted. An establishment is not necessarily identical with the "company" or "enterprise" which may consist of one or more establishments. Census of Business figures represent a summary of reports for individual establishments rather than companies. For businesses which were mailed a census form, separate information was obtained for each location where business was conducted, including each location of multiunit organizations. Each report was tabulated in accordance with the physical location at which the business was conducted.

Where two or more activities were carried on at a single location under a single ownership, all activities generally were grouped together as a single establishment, and the entire establishment was classified on the basis of its major activity, with all data for it included in that classification. However, in cases where distinct and separate economic activities (for which different industry classification codes were appropriate) were conducted under the same ownership at a single location, and where conditions prescribed by the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual¹ for recognizing the existence of more than one establishment were met, separate establishment reports for each of the different activities were reported in the census.

In the case of leased departments (separately owned businesses operated as departments of a retail business under another ownership such as a separately owned shoe department in a department store), only a single establishment combining leased departments with the retail establishment in which they are located is recognized for 1967 Census purposes.

Sales—Sales include merchandise sold and receipts from repairs and from other services to customers whether or not payment was received in 1967. Sales are net of deductions for refunds and allowances for merchandise returned by customers. Trade-in allowances are not deducted from total sales. Total sales exclude amounts other than those received from customers, such as income from investments, rental of real estate, etc. They include local and State sales taxes and Federal excise taxes collected by the store directly from customers and paid directly by the store to a local, State, or Federal tax agency. Gasoline, liquor, tobacco, and other excise taxes which are paid by the manufacturer or wholesaler and passed along to the retailer are also included.

Sales do not include retail sales made by manufacturers, wholesalers, service establishments, and other businesses whose primary activity is other than retail trade. They do, however, include receipts other than from the sale of merchandise at retail (e.g., service receipts, sales to industrial users, and sales to other retailers) by establishments primarily engaged in retail trade.

Although the count of establishments in this report represents the number in business at the end of the year, the sales figures include sales of all establishments in business at any time during the year. Data for nonemployer establishments are included in the tables if they operated at an annual sales volume rate of $2,500 or more; however, data for part year nonemployers have not been projected to a full year's operation.

Payroll, entire year—Payroll includes all forms of compensation such as salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, vacation allowances, sick leave pay, and the value of payments in kind (such as free meals and lodgings) paid during the year to all employees. Tips and gratuities received by employees from patrons which are reported to employers are included. For corporations, it includes amounts paid to officers and executives; for unincorporated businesses, it does not include compensation of proprietors or of partners. Payroll is reported before deductions for social security, income tax, insurance dues, etc. This definition of payroll is the same as that used by the Internal Revenue Service for purposes of reporting on Form 941.

Payroll for the first quarter of 1967—This item consists of payroll, as defined above, paid to persons on the payroll during the January–March 1967 quarter.

The rounding procedures used in summarizing quarterly payrolls resulted in an overstatement in the amount tabulated for establishments having a quarterly payroll of under $1,000. For total retail trade in the United States the estimated effect resulted in an overstatement of quarterly payroll of about 2 percent. The overstatement for individual areas and kinds of business will vary from the national average depending upon differences in their proportion of such small payroll cases.

Paid employees for the pay period including March 12, 1967—Paid employees consist of the number of employees, including salaried officers and executives of corporations, who were on the payroll in the pay period including March 12, 1967. Included are employees on paid sick leave, paid holidays, and paid vacations. Proprietors and partners of unincorporated businesses are not included. The definition of paid employees is the same as used in reporting on IRS Form 941.

Active proprietors of unincorporated businesses—The number of active proprietors shown in this report is based on crediting each sole proprietorship with one active proprietor and each partnership with two active proprietors for the following types of firms:

1. All payroll firms which had a first quarter payroll.
2. All nonpayroll firms in business the full year.
3. Every other nonpayroll firm not in business the full year.

For multiunit proprietorships and partnerships, proprietors were credited to only one establishment of such multiunits.

Central administrative offices and auxiliaries—Each company included in this census was asked to identify and report separately as "central administrative offices" or "auxiliaries" those locations whose primary functions were to manage, administer, service, or support the activities of the other establishments of the company. Data for such central administrative offices or auxiliaries which primarily service retail establishments are given in tables 16 and 17 of this report but are not included in the other tabulations of this report.

KIND-OF-BUSINESS CLASSIFICATIONS

Retail trade, as defined in major groups 52 through 59 of the 1967 edition of the SIC Manual, includes establishments primarily engaged in selling merchandise to customers for personal, household, or farm use. Some of the important characteristics of retail trade establishments are: (1) The establishment is engaged in activities to attract the general public to buy; (2) the establishment buys or receives merchandise as well as sells; (3) the establishment may process its products, but such processing is incidental or subordinate to selling; and (4) the establishment is considered "retail" by the trade.

In this report, liquor stores operated by State and local governments, classified in SIC major groups 92 and 93, are also included.

Excluded from retail trade are places of business operated by institutions and open only to members or personnel, such as school cafeterias, restaurants and bars operated by clubs, eating places operated by industrial and commercial enterprises for their own employees, establishments operated by agencies of the Federal Government on military posts, hospitals, etc. (As noted previously, there is a table in the area reports showing data for establishments on military, air, and naval posts.)

Establishments covered by the census were assigned a kind-of-business classification in accordance with the provisions of the 1967 edition of the SIC Manual. However, because in some instances a more detailed classification is required for census purposes than is available in the SIC Manual, additional kinds of business have been identified within the SIC categories.

It should be noted that kind-of-business classifications are not interchangeable with commodity classifications. Most businesses sell a number of kinds of commodities. The kind-of-business code assigned generally reflects either the individual commodity or the commodity group which is the primary source of the establishment's receipts or some mixture of commodities which characterize the establishment's business. Thus, the classification of establishments by kind of business generally does not make it possible to determine either the number of establishments handling a particular commodity or the sales of that commodity. For example, the "food group" classification excludes stores selling some food if the sale of food is not the primary source of receipts; moreover, even though stores are classified as "food stores" some of their receipts may be derived from the sale of nonfood products. (Some indication of the extent to which various broad groups of commodities or lines of merchandise are characteristic of different kinds of business will be available in the Census of Business report, Sales by Line of Merchandise, Series BC67-MLS.)

The basis for kind-of-business classification is described above in the sections under "Method of Coverage" and "Comparison of the 1963 Census With the 1967 Census—Classification." Descriptions of those kinds of business for which data are provided follow.

BUILDING MATERIALS, HARDWARE, AND FARM EQUIPMENT DEALERS (SIC Major Group 52)

This major group includes establishments primarily selling lumber, building materials, the basic lines of hardware, paint, wallpaper, glass, electrical supplies, roofing materials, and other equipment and supplies for all types of construction. Establishments primarily selling farm equipment are also included. Establishments in this group sell to contractors as well as to the general public. Establishments in this group which do not deal in lumber or millwork are classified as retail trade if sales to the general public equal 15 percent or more of total sales and sales to the general public and contractors combined equal 50 percent or more of total sales; otherwise they are classified as wholesale trade. (See below for discussion of treatment in 1967 of establishments which deal in lumber.)

Lumber and other building materials dealers (SIC 521)—Establishments primarily selling lumber, millwork, and other building materials and construction supplies such as brick, tile, cement, sand and gravel, cinder blocks, fencing materials, storm doors and windows, wall-board and roofing materials. In the 1967 Census of Business, data for lumber yards and for building materials dealers have been combined into a single kind-of-business classification, "Lumber and other building materials dealers." In the 1963 Census of Business data for these two kinds of business were shown separately.

Establishments which deal in lumber as well as other building materials, whose reported sales of lumber and millwork are 1 percent or more of their total sales and whose sales to the general public amounted to 1 percent or more of total sales, are classified as retail if their sales to the general public and to contractors combined equal 50 percent or more of total sales. In 1963, establishments dealing in lumber and other building materials were classified as "wholesale" if less than 15 percent of their total sales were to the general public.

Plumbing and heating equipment dealers (SIC 522)—Establishments primarily selling plumbing, heating, and air-conditioning equipment and supplies. Establishments primarily engaged in installation on a contract basis or in repairs are included in Contract Construction.

Paint, glass, and wallpaper stores (SIC 523)—Establishments primarily selling paint, glass, and wallpaper or any combination of these lines. Establishments primarily engaged in installing glass or in wallpapering or painting are not included in Retail Trade.

Electrical supply stores (SIC 524)—Establishments primarily selling electrical supplies such as lighting fixtures, lamp bulbs, wiring, cable, and fuse boxes. Establishments primarily selling electrical appliances are included with "Furniture, Home Furnishings, and Equipment Stores" (SIC major group 57).

Hardware stores (SIC 5251)—Establishments primarily selling a number of basic hardware lines such as tools, builders' hardware, paint and glass, housewares and household appliances, cutlery, and roofing materials, no one of which accounts for 50 percent or more of the sales of the establishments.

Farm equipment dealers (SIC 5252)—Establishments primarily selling new or used farm tractors, reapers, mowers, planters, plows, and related farm equipment. Usually these establishments also sell farm hardware and miscellaneous farm supplies.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE GROUP STORES (SIC Major Group 53, Part)

This group includes all establishments within SIC major group 53, "General Merchandise," except for "nonstore" establishments (SIC's 532, 534, and 535), which for purposes of this publication are separately classified. (See "Nonstore Retailers" below.) This major group includes establishments which sell several lines of merchandise such as dry goods, apparel and accessories, furniture and home furnishings, small wares, hardware, and food.

Department stores (SIC 531)—Establishments normally employing 25 people or more, having sales of apparel and softgoods combined amounting to 20 percent or more of total sales, and engaged in selling each of the following lines of merchandise:

1. Furniture, home furnishings, appliances, radio and TV sets.
2. A general line of apparel for the family.
3. Household linens and dry goods.

For establishments classified as department stores in 1963, sales of any one of the above merchandise lines cannot exceed 85 percent of total sales; for establishments included in classifications other than department stores in 1963, sales of any one of these lines cannot exceed 75 percent of total sales; for all other establishments to qualify as department stores, sales of each of the lines listed above must be less than 80 percent of total sales.

An establishment with total sales of $5 million or more is classified as a department store even if sales of one of the merchandise lines described above exceeds the maximum percent of total sales, provided that the combined sales of the other two groups is $500,000 or more. Relatively few stores are included in this classification as a result of this special rule and most of those which are would otherwise have been classified in the apparel group (SIC major group 56).

Variety stores (SIC 533)—Establishments primarily selling a variety of merchandise in the low and popular price ranges such as stationery, apparel and accessories, housewares, toys, toilet articles, hardware, and confectionery. These establishments frequently are known as “5 and 10 cent” stores and “5 cents to a dollar” stores, although merchandise is usually sold outside these price ranges.

Classification of stores in this category is primarily based on self designation by the store operators. In the 1963 Census of Business this industry was titled “limited price variety stores.”

General merchandise stores (part of SIC 539)—Establishments primarily selling several lines of merchandise such as household linens and dry goods, and/or a combination of apparel, hardware, housewares, or home furnishings and other lines in limited amounts. Establishments which meet the criteria for department stores, except as to employment, are included in this classification. Also included in this classification are establishments whose sales of “apparel” or of “furniture and home furnishings” exceed half of their total sales providing that sales of the smaller of the two lines in combination with “dry goods and household linens” accounts for 20 percent or more of total sales.

Dry goods stores (part of SIC 539)—Establishments primarily selling piece goods, linens, towels, blankets, spreads, and other dry goods.

Sewing and needlework stores (part of SIC 539)—Establishments primarily selling sewing and knitting supplies, patterns, lace, and notions.

FOOD STORES (SIC Major Group 54)

Establishments primarily selling food for home preparation and consumption. Establishments primarily selling prepared food and drinks for consumption on their own premises are classified as “Eating and Drinking Places” (SIC major group 58) and stores primarily engaged in selling packaged beers and liquors are classified separately as “Liquor stores” (SIC 592).

Grocery stores (SIC 541)—Establishments primarily selling (1) a wide variety of canned or frozen foods such as vegetables, fruits, and soups; (2) dry groceries, either packaged or in bulk, such as tea, coffee, cocoa, dried fruits, spices, sugar, flour and crackers; (3) other processed food and nonedible grocery items. In addition these establishments often sell smoked and prepared meats, fresh fish and poultry, fresh vegetables and fruits, and fresh or frozen meats.

Establishments commonly known as supermarkets, food stores, and delicatessens are included in this classification if receipts from sales of groceries and food items for off-premise preparation and consumption are 50 percent or more of total sales.

In the 1963 Census of Business this industry was titled “grocery stores, including delicatessens.”

Meat markets (part of SIC 542)—Establishments primarily selling fresh, frozen, or cured meats. Frequently these establishments also sell poultry, fish, dairy products, eggs, and some groceries. Establishments included in this category reported that “meat, fish, poultry” sales accounted for 80 percent or more of total sales, and that “fresh, frozen meat” accounted for 50 percent or more of their total receipts.

Fish (seafood) markets (part of SIC 542)—Establishments primarily selling fresh or frozen fish, oysters and other shellfish, and other seafoods. These establishments frequently sell other food items commonly used in preparing seafood or consumed with seafoods. Establishments included in this category reported that “fish, other seafood” accounted for 50 percent or more of total receipts.

Fruit stores and vegetable markets (SIC 543)—Establishments primarily selling fresh fruits and fresh vegetables. These establishments frequently carry a limited line of grocery items. Roadside stands of farmers selling only their own produce are not included in the Census of Business.

Candy, nut, and confectionery stores (SIC 544)—Establishments primarily selling candy, nuts, sweetmeats, and other confections. A soda fountain or lunch counter is frequently operated in these stores. Candy and popcorn stands operated as concessions in motion picture theaters are included in this classification.

Retail bakeries—baking and selling (SIC 5462)—Establishments primarily selling bakery products such as bread, cakes, pies, or cookies over the counter, some or all of which are baked on their own premises.

Restaurants, lunchrooms, caterers (part of SIC 5812)—Establishments primarily selling prepared food and drink for consumption either on the premises or at a place designated by the customer. Establishments calling themselves caterers but not selling prepared foods as part of their business activity are not included in this category.

Counter or table service may be provided at establishments calling themselves restaurants or lunchrooms.

In the 1963 Census of Business, ice cream, frozen custard, soft ice cream, and similar refreshment items sold from trucks were included in this classification. In the 1967 Census of Business, these establishments are classified as "Direct selling (house-to-house canvass) establishments" (SIC 5351) in the "Nonstore Retailers" group.

Drinking places (alcoholic beverages) (SIC 5813)—Establishments primarily selling drinks such as beer, ale, wine, liquor, and other alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises. Prepared foods are frequently sold at these establishments, but receipts from sales of alcoholic beverages exceed receipts from sales of food.

Florists (SIC 5992)—Establishments primarily selling cut flowers and growing plants. Greenhouses and nurseries are not included in the Census of Business unless receipts are primarily from sales of products not grown on the premises. Cigar stores and stands (SIC 5993)—Establishments primarily selling cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, and smokers' supplies. Optical goods stores (part of SIC 5999)—Establishments primarily engaged in selling eyeglasses and related optical goods. In 1967 establishments whose receipts were primarily from eye examinations and prescribing eyeglasses or contact lenses and providing the eyeglasses or contact lenses they prescribed were not included in the Census of Business; in 1963 such establishments were included in this classification.

(part of SIC 5999)—Establishments not elsewhere classified primarily selling specialized lines of merchandise such as collectors' items and supplies, artists' supplies, orthopedic and artificial limbs, drafting materials, typewriters, luggage and leather goods, pets, religious goods, hearing aids, rubber stamps, monuments and tombstones, and other merchandise not elsewhere classified.

In the 1963 Census of Business, data for typewriter stores, luggage, leather goods stores, religious goods stores, and pet shops (all parts of SIC 5999) were shown separately. For the 1967 Census of Business, no separate data are available for these kinds of business.

NONSTORE RETAILERS (Part of SIC Major Group 53)

Mail-order houses (SIC 532)—Establishments primarily selling merchandise as a result of orders received by mail. Customers are made aware of goods available for sale through catalogs, mailing pieces, advertisements in newspapers and magazines, and advertising on radio and television. Houses operated by companies which operate catalog order stores and catalog order desks in other retail establishments of the company, also fill orders from those sources. Catalog order stores are included in this classification and they are counted as separate establishments. Sales made from catalog order desks are included with the sales of the retail establishment in which they are located.

In some tabulations at the national or geographic division level, mail-order houses are divided into subclassifications on the basis of the merchandise they sell in the same manner as the store-type establishments.

Merchandising machine operators (SIC 534)—Establishments primarily selling merchandise through coin-operated vending machines which are generally located on the premises of other businesses. In the 1963 Census of Business this industry was titled "Merchandise vending machine operators."

Since a large number of merchandise vending machine operations are conducted in conjunction with the operation of manufacturing plants and of wholesale and other establishments not classified in retail trade, data for "retail" merchandise vending machine operators should not be interpreted as providing a measure of total sales through merchandise vending machines. The data for "retail" merchandise vending machine operators also do not include sales made through vending machines owned by establishments classified in other kinds of retail trade. Merchandise vending machine operators are divided into subclassifications on the basis of the merchandise sold in the machines on location as of the end of the census year. Operators of coin-operated service machines such as washers, dryers, music machines, and amusement and game machines are included in the Selected Services portion of the 1967 Census of Business.

Direct selling establishments (SIC 535)—Establishments primarily selling merchandise by house-to-house canvass, by party plan, or from a truck. When the canvassers are employed by the organization which they represent, the "establishment" is the location from which they operate. However, many of the important organizations whose products are distributed in this manner utilize self-employed canvassers as their representatives. Each such canvasser is counted as an "establishment" in this report. As a result, the "number of establishments" count is considerably larger than would be the case if the count were based on the primary organizations whose products are being distributed. Establishments in operation throughout the census year were included if their annual sales were $2,500 or more; establishments in operation during part of the census year were included only if their sales were at an annual rate of $2,500 or more. Consequently, the "number of establishments" in this category should not be interpreted as being a count of the total number of self-employed canvassers.

Direct selling organizations are divided into subclassifications on the basis of the merchandise they sell. Establishments selling ice cream, frozen custard, soft ice cream and similar refreshment items from trucks were included with "refreshment places" (part of SIC 5812) in the 1963 Census of Business but are now included in this classification. In the 1963 Census of Business this industry was titled "Direct selling (house-to-house) organizations."
